The authors present the following updates to correct errors in the database distribution of Met χ_2 . This change does not affect any results or analyses presented in the paper other than the crystallographic χ_2 distributions of the Met residue. Corrections in both the manuscript and the Supporting Information are described below.

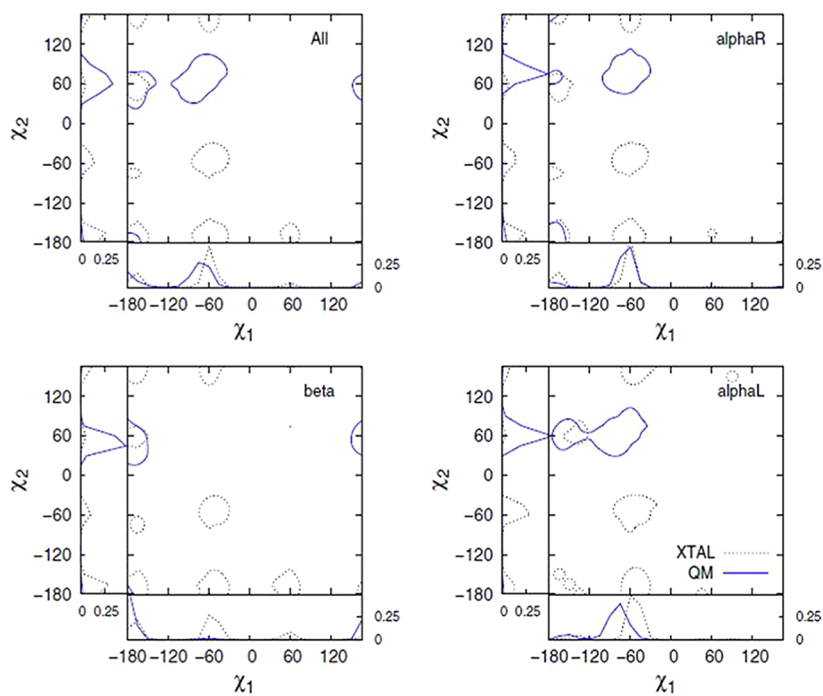

In the manuscript, page 1566, Figure 5, the results for Met have been corrected, and the figure has been replaced with the following:

In the Supporting Information, Table S2, the χ_2 entry for Met has been updated as follows:

met, 0.61, 0.29, 0.10, 0.61 (0.02), 0.29 (0.01), 0.10 (0.00)

In the Supporting Information, Figure S3, the plot for Met has been replaced with the following:
